

PARIS BUDGET

New Suits Filed.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 17.—New suits filed in the district court: E. B. Smith vs. W. M. Smith, divorce and custody of child; James A. Cooper, Ida and J. J. Jones, Dixie and Susan Cooper vs. R. L. Cooper, for partition; Mrs. M. L. Wilson vs. Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway company, damages for not building crossings and gates on right of way; S. W. Wilson, vs. same for same; F. S. Jones vs. same for same.

Death Watch On.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 17.—The death watch has been placed over C. L. Addington, the doomed man. A week from to-day, without the interference from President McKinley, the condemned man will suffer death on the gallows.

Newsy Notes.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 17.—Proceedings in the county court: Bowser & Co. vs. T. D. Wells, appealed from justice court, continued by plaintiff; J. F. and Ella Spelling vs. Texas and Pacific railway, judgment by agreement; J. B. Hart vs. R. D. Bowen, passed to Friday, the 21st.

Willie Thebo, the 10-year-old son of Geo. F. Thebo, fell from the top of an outhouse and received serious injuries.

Personal Mention.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 17.—J. E. Leith, general passenger and freight agent of the Texas Midland, is here from Terrell.

E. H. R. Green passed through the city last night, en route east.

General Manager L. J. Polk of the Santa Fe was here yesterday.
